Who is Ryan Zink?

In completing his 5th season in professional baseball, Ryan Zink has first hand training stemming from some of the best coaches in all of baseball. Drafted in the 17th round by the New York Yankees, Zink spent 3 years in their farm system, while developing skills in, arguably, the most competitive system in baseball. During his tenure, his teams made two playoff runs, while winning the 2010 Florida State League Championship in 2010 with the Tampa Yankees (A+). Zink has spent the past two years in the Frontier League making the playoffs in 2011 with the Southern Illinois Miners and winning the Frontier League Championship with the River City Rascals in 2010.

Madison, WI native, Ryan was named the Wisconsin Baseball Player of the Year in 2003 and the #1 professional prospect by Baseball America. Drafted in the 47th round by the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003, Ryan elected to pass on the opportunity to attend the University of Illinois at Chicago where he led teams to 4 Horizon League Championships and 2 NCAA D1 Regional berths.

Coach Ryan has been helping pitchers reach their potential for the last 6 years. He has been giving private, small group, and team instruction in Wisconsin and is excited to share his knowledge and expertise here in the Chicagoland area!
